

It's Coming Down

Cake

It's coming down
It's coming down
It's raining outside
You've nowhere to hide

She's asking you why you think it's funny
It's coming down
It's coming down
She's leaving your house

She had to get out
She's mad and she'll take her mattress with her
It's coming down
It's coming down

It's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming down

It's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming down
You lie on the floor

She's slamming your door
She's gone and she's wearing your red sweater
It's coming down
It's coming down

It's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming down

Aw no
It's coming down
It's coming down
It's coming down
