Glass Houses

Skinny Puppy

sit in darkness understand what i am is what i am overshadowed by assertion makes me certain solemn ponder wander shake shaded with a doubt nightmare full of fear solvent raining from the sky backlog danger hypnotize glass blown eyes stain in drain on procreate fascinate me instigate care to here morbid desert ice cream eyes so deceiving fraternize carefully create vision fabricate smash to pieces watch and wait crash glass houses hasten grasp calculate foreign object phornicate smash glass houses misinterpret reprimand are you here myself demands mediocre are you hearing headspace clearing
