

Maybe If...

Maid Myriad

Told myself the third time is a charm
I put myself right in the eye of harm
Never meant to complicate
But if Iâ€™d stay at heart, Iâ€™d dissociate
Now Iâ€™m caught sounding the alarm

Maybe if I were without love
Maybe I would never fall again

I see the world through a kaleidoscope
Fixated on those southern days
Lost glimpse never attract
See the world through a kaleidoscope

Too late to retreat
Futures dead on arrival
Riding on this circus wheel
Spinning blurs away

Maybe if the lies were never true
Maybe if they knew I was unknown
Maybe if I never paid my dues
Maybe if I never threw this stone

Wish Iâ€™d never learned the word REGRET

Maybe if I were without love
Maybe I would never fall again

Lyrics submitted by Jeff.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>