

Never See Me Fall

Young Soulja The Realest

Ay yo Soulja,

Whats hattinin?

I know people out there ain't feelin me but uh...(Verse one)You ain't in my present state of mind pfft, bite me

Let me tell you better do the right thing, Spike Lee

Though being fly might look so initing

I shut you down like a fresh stick bolt of lightningGive me no credit, it's really no thing

Like to heat it up, I match the propane

I ain't an amateur, I bring the pro pain

How can I be top grade when I'm a D-Man?Go head, take it to the head

Look so good, feel so bad

And when enough trash talk is to be had

I don't get mad, just get glad, I'm saying...(Chrous) x2Ok, you done seen it all

But you ain't never gonna see me fall. Naw Naw

Ok, you done seen it all

But you ain't never, you ain't never. Naw Naw(Verse Two)

I can't be served so these haters can't knock me/

You gone hear this rap and go to kinkos to copy/

High school running back, but they still jock me/

The cleats still got green on um/

Like fat joe I lean on them/ (lean on them)

Then shake them off later/

But I got something to suck like lifesavers/

I'm hearing all this talkin', niggas talkin' this and that/

But you niggas straight pussy like the fuckin Aristocats/

Its young world, young world, cuz we spit so sick/

And we representin' for the ones that was hopeless/ (hopeless)

And like chris tucker you know this maaaannnnnnnnnnnnnnn/

Okay I go against the grain, like I was a rebel/

You think im on the same ground, but im on another level/

First I was a baby, then you'd see me crawl/

And now im full grown you will never see me fall/ (naw)(Chrous) x2Ok, you done seen it all

But you ain't never gonna see me fall. Naw Naw

Ok, you done seen it all

But you ain't never, you ain't never. Naw Naw(Verse three)Thinking so highly of myself what do you know?

Feelin so light headed get me down from Pluto

Baby mess around got visions of the Juno

Claiming that they found the one and only, UnoAbide by the money man I flip it, coin toss

I'm a surviver but I'm feeling so lost

I keep it one hundred, no knock offs

What else can I say man there's really no off...Button, when I vibe the room gets to cutting
By the way you bobbing your head I'm on to something

Two thousand and twelve, my world ain't done

I don't know about you, but my world is YoungBrand new age, damn I'm blessed

Pounding in the chest now she lifting up the dress

Don't know if I warned you but I got a death kiss

My McLovin goes deep make you spray the Red Mist.(Chrous) x2Ok, you done seen it all

But you ain't never gonna see me fall. Naw Naw

Ok, you done seen it all

But you ain't never, you ain't never. Naw NawAnd they you have it haters

Its young world ent

We get with it

its young soulja,
