Baby Take a Bow

Shirley Temple

Nobody gave me mention till they saw me with you,
Paid me a bit of attention
till the saw me with you;
Suddenly strange people walked up to me,
Pretending they knew me,
And begging me to introduce you.Ev'rybody's asking me,
Wh'o that bunch of personality?
I'm presenting you right now
Baby, take a bow!Ev'rybody wants to know
Where I found the lovely cameo,
I'm presenting you right now
Baby, take a bow!Hear them whispering
"Hasn't she got ev'rything?
You're a stand out,
Listen to the compliments
they hand out;Let me stand right up and say:
"Meet the future Missus Hemmingway!"
I'm presenting you right now.
Baby, take a bow.
take a bow!
