

Falling Away

Good Charlotte

And tonight we burn down everything
We worked so hard to build
The ashes will reign down on me Memories set aflame, sail away
What we said if we can make this
Then we can break this into two memories I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again
I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again And tonight I will be a vessel
With these sails set aflame
Let this ocean of our memories Carry me out to sea, I will be
Fall beneath the crashing waves
Into my grave I will sleep I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again
I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again
I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again If we can make this, then we can break it
If we can build it, then we can burn it down I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again
I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again I feel you fallin' away, I feel you fallin' away
I feel you fallin' away from me again And now you're farther away, now you're farther away
Now you're farther away from me again
And now you're farther away, now you're farther away
Now you're farther away from me again And now you're farther away, now you're farther away
Now you're farther away from me again
And now you're farther away, now you're farther away
Now you're farther away from me again
