So It Seems

The Natterjacks

So it seems that I have been rather foolish for some time
Trying to chase all of the dreams I should have left behind
But you told me go on and see where they might lead you in the end
Youâ€™ll never know until youâ€™ve seen it all for yourself
I left my mind lost track of time letting all of my doubts slip through Trying to recall all of the memories Iâ€™d shared with you Still Iâ€™m struggling to see What it is that I could be â€˜Cause I just canâ€™t forget it no I canâ€™t let it go
Now I remember everything
And the way you looked at me
But I just canâ€™t forget it I just canâ€™t let it go
My thoughts run wild laugh like a child when Iâ€™m alone there with you
All my worries in the world are blown far away in the wind
So maybe I just need to find a place where we can both walk beside Each other in our arms together and never stray too far Donâ€™t leave it too late donâ€™t lose it
Iâ€™ll be back soon my darling.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/