

Changing World

Jay Farrar, Will Johnson, Anders Parker & Yim Yame

I thought I had it all under control
I thought my fate was still in my hands
    All of my plans were firmly set
    By the words that I say
I forgot how quickly things can change
    Now my vision cannot be the same
    My life is not what I thought
    I'm not where I planned to be
    Though something's gone
    There's nothing wrong
    With my changing world
    Though something's gone
    There's nothing wrong
With my changing world, in my world
    I need to let go of my destiny
    I need to trust in things unseen
    I believe in having faith
    Though I yield my control
I forgot how quickly things can change
    Now my vision cannot be the same
    My life is not what I thought
    I'm not where I planned to be
    Though something's gone
    There's nothing wrong
    With my changing world
    Though something's gone
    There's nothing wrong
With my changing world, in my world
    I'm embracing all of my fears
    I am watching them turn to delight
The very fears which were gripping my mind
Are now the hands shaping and sculpting my dreams
    My life is not what I thought
    I'm not where I planned to be
    Though something's gone
    There's nothing wrong
    With my changing world
    Though something's gone
    There's nothing wrong

With my changing world
In my world
In my changing world
In my world
In my changing world
