

Valley of the Sun

White Skull

From the holy river, came a race I've never seen
Black earth, gave birth to the thirty dynasties
And all the people venerate the almighty God
Supreme divinity, are all the pharaohs
Devoted priests watch over temples of the dead
The celebration of the burial, never end
Embalmed bodies lay down, mummies are alive
The body rest, the soul enter a new life
Precious gift, the earth gave to the man
Egypt land, it's glittering around
Hail to you, valley of the sun
Egypt land, it's glittering around
Look at the pyramid, a world is closing in
In Giza plain, you will find the greatest graves
Don't touch the jewels or the skeleton arise
The malediction of the mummy will survive
Precious gift, the earth gave to the man
Egypt land, it's glittering around
Hail to you, valley of the sun
Egypt land, it's glittering around
Precious gift, the earth gave to the man
Egypt land, it's glittering around
Hail to you, valley of the sun
Egypt land, it's glittering around
Precious gift, the earth gave to the man
Egypt land, it's glittering around
Hail to you, valley of the sun
Egypt land, it's glittering around
