

Wake Up

Snakadaktal

Don't you tell me that this is the end

    The end of our story

    Been meaning so long to find out

        What we are

    But what have we left to prove

        There's no more mystery

    Nothing is cute anymore, anymore

    Gave up so much time baby (uh huh)

        Wheres our rewarding (uh huh)

    Being in love shouldnt feel like a chore

        I tried so hard to walk away

            But I cant let you go

    The things that we go through cuz of love

        I should realize its over (cant you see)

    This fantasy's turning into a bad dream

        And I just wanna wake up

            Wanna wake up

        I tried so hard to be kind

            Keeping my composure

                To see if ya'd wait

    Where I would when I could

        Communication block on a dull road to nowhere

    Our seperate ways wont get us where we wanna go

        We cant go on baby (uh huh)

            Feeding this torture (uh huh)

    Being in love shouldnt feel like a chore

        I tried so hard to walk away

            But I cant let you go

    The things that we go through cuz of love

        I should realize its over (cant you see)

    This fantasy's turning into a bad dream

        And I just wanna wake up

            Wanna wake up

        You were all I needed

        Now your all I'm leaving

            I just cant go back

                No...

    The things that we go through cuz of love

I should realize its over (cant you see)
This fantasy's turning into a bad dream
And I just wanna wake up
Wanna wake up
The things
Love
Over
