Danger

Hilary Duff

Were you born in '74?
Are you the kind of guy that I should ignore?
Will you give me all the things I need?
You probably never wear your heart on your sleeve
You intrigue me like no one before
It may be wrong to get to know you more
But I'm not sure
I'm so unsure
'Cause I see danger, danger, danger in your eyes
'Cause danger, danger, danger, you disguise
So baby lift your head up to the light
There's danger in those eyes
There's danger in your eyes
You belong to my darker side
You're a guy who sets a girl on fire
I can see myself falling in line
Like the hundred girls you had over time
And I want more
I am so sure

That I want more
I am so sure
'Cause I see danger, danger, danger in your eyes
'Cause danger, danger, danger, you disguise
So baby lift your head up to the light
There's danger in those eyes
I'm smarter than this and know better than this
'Cause there's something really missin' in your kiss
I'm smarter than this and know better than this
But there's something that you got that's tough to resist
It's tough to resist
'Cause I see danger, danger, danger in your eyes
'Cause danger, danger, danger, you disguise
So baby lift your head up to the light
There's danger in those eyes, there's danger in your eyes
You're dangerous
You're dangerous
You're dangerous
