

Corner Cafe

The Gabe Dixon Band

There's a corner cafe
It stays open all the night
I went inside to escape the world
It's my favorite place to hide
Old man in the corner been complaining about the cold put on your smile and coat your mind doesn't have to grow old
Tell 'em that it's raining inside my head again
Look at us we're struggling to make this life begin
Tell 'em I'll be waiting for that sunny day
Look at me I'm struggling, I just can't find my way
In the meantime I'll be waiting, hoping for a sign Share a cup with me my lover you always ease my mind
Tell 'em that it's raining inside my head again
Look at us were struggling to make this life begin
Tell 'em I'll be waiting for that sunny day
Look at me I'm struggling, I just can't find my way
There's a corner cafe
It stays open all the night
I went inside to escape the world
It's my favorite place to hide
