Time

Nitzer Ebb

I woke up from a trap, hit me just like a slap
Took the weight of my ass and filled up another glass
I need time to drink, leaving not much to think
With you off my back, I will be back on the trackI need to disappear to change my name it's clear
No one to listen and no eyes to glisten
When I have got something to say
I will hope, I will pray sweet nothing is to come my wayI need to disappear to change my name it's clear
[Incomprehensible]
No one to listen and no eyes to glisten
When I have got something to say
I will hope, I will pray sweet nothing is to come my wayI want to make undone all we have been making
I want to make undone all we have been making
I want to make undone all we have been making
I want to make undone all we have been makingI don't care
I don't careYou said that I should look
But I am off that hook
You said that you would wait
You can forget that bait
Don't make me stopYou told me to look
But I'm off that hook
You said that you'd wait
You can forget that baitOh time
To think, think about this
Thinking 'bout all the things I'd miss
No, no I don't care, I don't care
I don't care, oh time, oh time
Oh time, oh timeI don't care
I don't care
I don't care
