Warrior Of Life (reaper Redeemer)

Sentenced

All these years I've spent fighting the fight winning my war, showing my might
It was clear to me all the time...
- There's no battle like that of lifeGive me War!
I will give you Hell!I'm the Warrior of Life, I know the Reaper by name
I was born one foot in grave
I'm the Warrior of Life and my blood's running cold
I see pain wherever I goI've stood up everyone and everything and walked against the wind
So it is and so it will be
It is the only way... for meGive me War!
I will give you Hell!I'm the Warrior of Life, I know the Reaper by name
I was born one foot in grave
I'm the Warrior of Life and my blood's running cold
I see pain wherever I go (x2)
