

Silverado Bench Seat

Granger Smith

Girl you shine like a brand new dime
Like a song and rhyme I can sing to
I bet them boys all stand in line so they
Can take you out and try to win you
My boots and jeans don't go so well
With a white table cloth and a ritzy hotel
Well im used to much simpler things so,
Baby climb on in this truck, Ill show you what I mean

I want to love you on a Silverado bench seat
Fogging up the windows while were parked down by the creek
No other love besides the stars and the moon,
That's what you get when this country boy loves you

A Girl like you is just so pretty
You've been wine and dine all over this town
I want to take you far from the city
Back on up a back road and watch the sun go down

I want to love you on a Silverado bench seat
Fogging up the windows while were parked down by the creek
No other love besides the stars and the moon,
That's what you get when this country boy loves you

We'll See around midnight if the sky is right
How the water starts dancing in the moonlight
If you want a country boy loving you,
And girl I know ya do

I want to love you on a Silverado bench seat
Fogging up the windows while were parked down by the creek
No other love besides the stars and the moon,
That's what you get when this country boy loves you

When this country boy loves you,
On a Silverado bench seat
