

Note On a Subway Wall

Franz Nicolay

Did you ever leave a note for me
In graffiti on a subway wall?
Saying I'm so sad
I'm so sorry
I love you so much
I could die from guilt
Every day
Every day I dreamt I got touched
I dreamt I could fly
And my palms itch where I should feel the blood rushing under your skin
Did you ever leave a note for me
In graffiti on a subway wall?
Saying I'm so mad
You'll be so sorry
I love you so much
You should die from guilt
I feel so bad
Every day
Every day I dreamed I got touched
I dreamed I could fly
And my palms itch where I should feel the blood rushing under your skin
Nothing holds us together
We would change our tastes rather Than meet up with each other
We would cross the street quickly
To avoid one another
But I still wonder what you would think
I still think of what you wouldn't approve
And if you ever, ever If you ever left a note for me
In graffiti on a subway wall
Saying I'm so sad
I'm so sorry
I love you so much
I could die from guilt
I feel so bad
Every day
Every day Someone left it for someone
And I read it again and again
Until the train came

And took me away, away
