I'm Not Trying To Keep Score No More

Eric Roberson

I'm not trying to keep score no more
That's not what I'm in it for
I ain't trying to win
I'm not trying to fight no more
That's not what I'm in it for, baby, oh no, no
Now if I ended arguing girl
It should would have end
Who I really am
Come on, let's not pretend
That all the fussing and fighting
It's nothing more than that
Don't want to be hard
You can have the last word
