

Obsessed and so Obscure

Matt Berry

Obsessed and so obscure
I felt my head decapitate
Without a sense of it all I'm stuck between two trees
I must've been a hundred feet
But had no fear of it all I think my heart now beats for three
You and me and Christopher Lee I'm paid to aid escape
But where the hell am I to go
To get away from it all There's blood across your face
You've been amongst the animals
Yet you deny it all I went into the woods
And found myself a laser gun
Before blasting you all I think my heart now beats for three
You and me and Christopher Lee I'm paid to aid escape
But where the hell am I to go
To get away from it all Obsessed and so obscure
I felt my head decapitate
Without a sense of it all Stuck between two trees
I must've been a hundred feet
But had no fear of it all I think my heart now beats for three
You and me and Christopher Lee I think my heart now beats for three
You and me and the BBC
