Daniel

Devendra Banhart

We once had a time
Meet me at The Castro tonight
I held a rose, you held who knows
But that?s fine
And we fell in love, we fell in love
At the Jon Reed choir
And right there and then
I swore to no end

Swore to never let you go
But love?s got a way of fading away
I never saw you again
I never saw you again
Waiting in line to see Suede play
And we had a time, I wish we could stay
And waiting in line to see Suede play
