

I'm Over You

Hootie & The Blowfish

The stars are shining brighter
Than the night that I remember
My thoughts are like a river
Reflecting in all directions I'm gonna phone her
But not today
I'm gonna write her
But not today Today I'm gonna be
Driving down highway 441
With the windows down
Beer in one hand, the radio blasting
My old needs I won't recognize
'Cause I'm over you Hold on to the evening
Hold on to the morn
All night long
The sunshine hiding underneath and I'm gonna phone her
But not today
I'm gonna write her
But not today Today I'm gonna be
Driving down highway 441
With the windows down
Beer in one hand, the radio blasting
My old needs I won't recognize
'Cause I'm over you I'm over you, I'm over you
I'm over you, I'm over you
I'm over you, I'm over you
