

Jesus and Jezebel

Rachel Potter

Preacher says we should love our neighbors
But I don't even know my neighbors names
And every Sunday it's the same

Trying to find the answers in the stained glass windowAll the sins I carry on my shoulders
Well it's a wonder that I made it through the door

Broke some golden rules the good book said I should stick to

Does that make me rotten to the core?The whispers in the pews, well they ain't praying for me and you
How can a place so sacred be filled with so much hatred?But me and Jesus, we're as thick as thieves
If you don't believe us, maybe you just don't believe

They may say a girl like me is going straight to Hell

Oh but I think Jesus can love this JezebelMet my best friend, Jack, in Sunday school
Singing 'bout the B-I-B-L-E

Learning 'bout the love that purifies each one of us

And in His eyes, we are freeBut Jack grew up and fell in love with Adam
Pretty soon the word sure got around

And those folks who agreed that Adam should love Eve

Well they kicked Jack and Adam to the groundThe whispers in the pews, well they ain't praying for me and you
If we're covered by His blood then who are they to judge?Yeah 'cause Jack and Jesus, they're as thick as thieves

If you don't believe us, maybe you just don't believe

They may say, straight or gay, we're going straight to hell

Oh but I think Jesus can love this JezebelThis little light is mine
So let me let it shine
This little light is mine
So let me let it shine
This little light is mine
So let me let it shine
This little light is mine

So let me let it shine, let it shine, let it shineYeah, me and Jesus we're as thick as thieves

If you don't believe us maybe you just don't believe

They may say if I act this way I'm going straight to Hell

Oh, but I think Jesus can love this Jezebel

Oh yeah, I know Jesus loves this Jezebel
