

Morning Rainbow

Wand

Lucifer, with your eyes of fire,
Come back to me,
Make sure that there is nothing left,
Don't let them see,
What they never want to see,
What their eyes already lack,
Just to get out from beneath, I move forward, I move backward
Cut my hand out of its sleeve,
Still i cannot find,
Itching underneath the sheets,
Cloak of choking, spitting cover,
Dancing darker than I need,
We will see this world together in its terror, Come back to me,
Come back to me,
Come back to me,
Come back to me.
