Cruel

Thomas Dolby

Cruel, what a thing to do
I've been cruel to you such a long time
And how can I hide my shame
'Cause there I go again at the wrong timeAnd I know that it was just the fear of flying
And I know it's hard to keep myself from crying
But when my tears are washed away you'll still be blind
Skin diving for jewelsYou were a shining pearl in a broken shell
Under moonlight and I was cruelAnd I know that it was just the fear of flying
And I know it's hard to keep myself from crying
But when my tears are washed away you'll still be blind
Skin diving for jewelsCruel, I've been such a fool
And I'll be missing you
Such a long time
I was cruelCruel
