

Like A Star (Prod. by Donnie Trumpet)

Raury

[Intro]

Oh but to

Oh but to love you

Oh but to love you

When you're alone

And you're far from home

Her name's the same but emojis are gone

Said baby girl there's a fork in our road[Hook]

But you're a star (all the time)

And when I leave they'll all know who you are

Cause you're a star

[Verse 1]

We're so very young and full of love

You convinced my soul that maybe I should stay

(Just like a star)

We're too very young to be in love

Girl I think you know I know I should wait

Ah girl, girl I tried so hard

Swear I tried so hard

Even prayed to God

Even prayed to God

(Just like a star)

So this one goes to you

And all the things you do

Said this one goes to you[Bridge]

(Oh but to love you

Oh but to love you)

And all the things you do

(Oh but to love you

Oh but to love you

Do it all the time)[Verse 2]

No I can't even stay

That would just make you the same old case

Cause I'm a fool, I'm ashamed

Prolly give your ass all the food on my plate

Now you're pushin' 28

Smokin' hella weed in a crib in LA

Never had a bill that a nigga didn't pay

House got a view full of dreams you ain't chase

You pretend it's amazin'
Hittin' up friends to rub it in their faces
Hittin' up him to tell him he can stay here
And forget that I stay here
Hit up the plug for some pills on your payday
Don't dig your grave and forget that I stay here
Don't dig your grave and forget that I lay here
Don't dig your grave and start gettin' grateful
First off your view of Atlanta was hateful
Then you met me and decided to stay here
Then I blew up when I first graduated
Made you a promise I never be changin'
I shoulda made your ass promise the same cause
Gave you keys to the city
Why you go left and go out on a nigga?
Why you go out and decide you a stripper?[Hook]
But you're a star (all the time)
And when I leave they'll all know who you are
Cause you're a star[Outro]
Oh but to love you
Oh but to love you
Oh but to love you
Oh but to love you
