

Haggard, Hank & Her

Toby Keith

Whiskey knows my weakness
Bartender knows my pain
My heart knows I'm hurtin'
And the barstool knows my name This glass knows I'm empty
The devil knows my game
The good lord knows I'm lonely
And the juke box knows no shame Nobody makes me cry
Nobody gets me high
Nobody says goodbye or takes me back in time
To the place that we once were
Nobody thrills me
Nobody chills me
Nobody kills me
Like Haggard, Hank, and her Memory and drinks don't mix too well
Its misery and gin
Like a whipper will and I'm too blue to fly
What I wouldn't give
My baby would just walk in
Cause I'm so lonesome I could cry Nobody makes me cry
Nobody gets me high
Nobody says goodbye or takes me back in time to the place where we once were
Nobody thrills me
Nobody chills me
Nobody kills me
Like Haggard, Hank, and her Oh, nobody kills me
Like Haggard, Hank, and her
