

Free Again

Greg Holden

(Woah, woah)
(Woah, woah)I've been moving in the wrong direction
Getting lost in my constant question
Always thought there was no escape
Never really thought about what it would take, woah(Woah, woah)Try to fill all my empty spaces
Late nights with lonely faces
What is happening with my life
I've got to figure it outThe chain is broken
And I am free again
It was ripped wide open
And I am free again
(Woah, woah)
The weight's been lifted
And I am free again
Free againI've been treading into deep deep water
Doing things that I never thought of
I saw the light on the other side
But never thought I'd make it out aliveSo I keep moving in the wrong direction
Always looking at the hardest question
If I was living in a perfect life
Would I have figured it out?The chain is broken
And I am free again
It was ripped wide open
And I am free again
(Woah, woah)
The weight's been lifted
And I am free again
Free again(Woah, woah)
(Woah, woah)
(Woah (oh, oh), woah (oh, oh))
(Woah (oh, oh), woah (oh, oh))The chain is broken
And I am free again
It was ripped wide open
And I am free again
(Woah, woah)
The weight's been lifted
And I am free againThe chain is broken
And I am free again
It was ripped wide open

And I am free again(Woah (oh, oh), woah (oh, oh))The weight's been lifted (oh, oh)

And I am free again (oh, oh)

The chain is broken

And I am free again (I am free again)

Free again
