

Back

Wonder Girls

We Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
Backs on back, Backs on back
We have our backups behind us and we are back
We Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
B A C K back we back
We're back now so go back go pack It's 2015 and I'm 24, as a flower, I'm a rising flower
I'm Hyelim, a Wonder Girl that's me
Have you missed me or dissed me?
If you don't listen, no kissy
Weren't you bored because we weren't here? The stage looked empty
As opposed to all the kids jumping around here, we have our own army (loyalty)
People said they didn't know where we were cuz they couldn't see us
They think they're all that but you're mistaken
Words are a scary weapon, they can become a bomb so please stop
Calling me an idol? But hey, look
I'm no kid and I'm not a doll
You're not even half of me We Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
Backs on back, Backs on back
We have our backups behind us and we are back
We Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
B A C K back we back
We're back now so go back go pack Yeah ma back, I got my backups but not a bag
It's my own self, my self pack (it's me)
It's not the kind of backup where people go easy on me cuz I know them (nope)
They support me and prove that I'm real like a tag (yup)
My stacked up filmography, overflowing trophies
Just one picture and I'm in the headlines, insta selfie
This isn't enough so in order to fill my desires
I'm back so prepare your white flag
Real back, a big experience, not fit for my age
No peace, I'll go for the challenge, for a bigger adventure
It's alright if I fail, I have my JYP insurance
Listen to me, my advice is good
Your expensive bags at home is no good
You can't buy your backups with money

Bring it on, give me a price, I'll give you an estimate
If you don't like it, ask me, I'll give you an answerWe Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
Backs on back, Backs on back
We have our backups behind us and we are back
We Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
B A C K back we back
We're back now so go back go packThe many thoughts cruelly wear out my lips, my heart freezes
Today's a new day, even if you step on me, I'm still ok (hahaha)
I got my back, the haters have a sad look, haters watch your back
No matter what anyone says, I am myself, I protect myself, who else will?For three years, there was an endless, dark break
Everyone asks, are you even gonna have a comeback?
Should I tell em that I'm dead? So they'll bow down to me
But we've become giants, what're you gonna do if you get stepped on?
I'm sick of it, my ears are about to scar
I'm a ripe fruit, attracting flies, I won't blame them though
What are you saying, stop barking, your mouth will hurt
I'm too busy to lash out anywayWe Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
Backs on back, Backs on back
We have our backups behind us and we are back
We Back Back Back
I'm Back Back Back
B A C K back we back
We're back now so go back go packB A C K if I'm not my own back, who has my back
P A C K it's time for you to pack, it's time for me to unpack
B A C K if I'm not my own back, who has my back
P A C K it's time for you to pack, it's time for me to unpack
