Your Best Nightmare

London After Midnight

Long after midnight, on a night like this I'd sit by my blacklight and dream of your kiss pulsating music filled my room and my head and I dreamed what it'd be like to have you in my bedI'm your best nightmareAnd then it happened, you were in my arms your lips on my throat- your hands on my, on my... two bodies together the intimate sin the pain and the pleasure could do mortals in how could you know what I'm thinking of to me lust can be as beautiful as love here tonight, your pure heart and soul untainted passion should have no controlShe asked me if I...
I told her the truth I said "I'm sorry it takes me longer than you" she smiled and blushed and continued to grind and promised to make me go out of my mindreturning her promise she came to a halt licking my lips I tasted her salt then she sat up and gasped and clutched at her breast I thought she was coming- I'd never have guessed that as she grew pale, as white as a flower she collapsed to the floor and was dead in an hour.I'm your best nightmare
