Connection

Can

My connection is your connection,
The sun is shining, I see you smile.
Turning it over I see the clover,
The things that I want, dear, are nothing dull.
My connection is your connection,
The sun is shining, I see your face.
Turning it over I see the clover,
The things that I love, dear, are taking the shame.
My connection is your connection,
The sun that I love, dear, is turning inside.
Falling is under the things that I wonder,
The light that I bring, dear, is bringing its sight.My connection is your connection,
The things that I want, dear, are always in sight.
Turning it over I see the clover,
The things that I want, dear, are nothing dull.
My connection is your connection,
The things that I love, dear, are always the same.
Turning it over I see in the clover
The things that I love, dear, don't bring the rain.
