

Make It Precious

Make Me Famous

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

[Intro:]

OHH!!

Let me see, see your dreams
And just let me touch your heart again
On the street where my beliefs
Never caused you no pain[Verse 1:]

People hurt

They always leave in just a minute
For all those woken in my shirt
(YOU SHOULD ADMIT!) that I just did it

That I just did it[Chorus:]

Feels so hard to find the reason of love
Can't take any longer

You're so much stronger

Since I've been dreaming of a sign from above

Don't get any better

Nothing does matter

My eyes are open wide to see what's coming next

The trace I walk is so empty

I'll give my life to make you never forget

Who the hell you wanted to make me

I'm better than you could be[Verse 2:]

Always so sure

That you can climb the sky

Settle down your mind

And never ever die

Come and kiss me

Oh darling, make me believe

That I could ever give it back,

Just turn my back and leave[Breakdown:]

Never knew if my words

Would make sense again

When you extend your name
With titles and awards
If there is a time for words
To make sense again?
If there is a planet of hopes
Where you and me remain? You mesh my head
And that's the worst thing you could do
I never knew if my words would make sense again [Chorus:]
Feels so hard to find the reason of love
Can't take any longer
You're so much stronger
Since I've been dreaming of a sign from above
Don't get any better
Nothing does matter
My eyes are open wide to see what's coming next
The trace I walk is so empty
I'll give my life to make you never forget
Who the hell you wanted to make me
I'm better than you could be [Bridge:]
A tiny border between love and hate [Breakdown:]
Yeah babe, I was laughing
But now it's true
So make up your mind
And look for your heartbeat
I would connect my life
With every single part Yeah babe, I was lying
But now it's true
So make up your mind
And look for your heartbeat
I would connect my life
With every single part [Outro:]
People hurt - they always leave in just a minute
For all those woken in my shirt - admit that I just did it
People hurt - they always leave in just a minute
For all those woken in my shirt... Admit that I just did it bitch. OHH!
