Anchor

Granian

I'm in the water leave me here
with an anchor in my hand
I'm in the water leave me here
with an anchor in my hand
I have heard it enough to walk away
I am cold and alone
I have seen it enough to look away
I am cold and lonely
Dropped! Over the edge help pull me up
I am in over my head
Over the edge help pull me up
I am in over my head
It has been long enough to rip away
I can't on my own
If I leave this for you to understand
I am damned

It's not that I don't believe
It's not that I don't want to see
Exactly who I am
You think I'm colder
I'm harder than steel
You're wrong

Leave it hidden still I see out of the corner of my eye
Seal it shut leave it on the shelf for me to pick up on my way out on my down and
It has been long enough to rip away
I can't on my own
If I leave this for you to understand
I am damned

The dark lines
Beneath my eyes
Will fade but won't spread
You say I'm harder than steel
Steel you're wrong
