Steady State

Codeseven

Goodbye forever
you are the catalyst for imperfection clinging for that one last hint of refusal your most cherished reason for life ran out along with your willingness to finish it your most cherished reason for life ran with you no more tomorrow's no more guarantees none the less no more tomorrow's only left in secondary shadows with no one in control a struggle separated from faith rationality no longer a factor left helpless no one here to pick you up
a struggle separated from faith rationality goodbye forever hello to goodbye forever
stick figure silhouette are you on the inside
