

Ecstasy

Iceage

Now there just passed on another day
Where I really wanted to get away
From the problems that I built up
Can only see one way to make it stop
Unable - I'm too bound
I wanna get away from what I found
Each day another rock upon my head
Each night I lie awake in bed What shade

Of joy

Will hit

Me first

I hope

It lasts

A burst

In bliss

Pressure

Pressure

Oh god no

Pressure Adorned in carnal ecstasy

A hazy focus blurs and sharpens sight

Now my senses are leading me

A mere blow of wind could turn me into light

Hands everywhere, covering me

Feels so overwhelming I can't breathe

But bliss is momentary anyhow

Yet worth living for - take me now

What shade

Of joy

Will hit

Me first

I hope

It lasts

A burst

In bliss Pressure...

Pressure... Pressure

Pressure

Oh god no

Pressure Can't take this pressure
