Small Town Girl

Never Shout Never

i got this new girlfriend She likes waking up early insted of sleeping in And how she loves me for the dumb that i truly am ive got this new girlfriend
And honestly i probly shouldnt even call her man
she so divine but shes so coo coo and the same damn time
And i cant understand why it is taking so much time to see this small town girl is the catch of a life time She dont even know just who i am no She dont even know just where ive been
no
And every broken promise that i ever made
i promise you
From the deepest darkest corrner of my heart just know my love is true
She dont even know
I've got this new girlfriend
She likes scary movies and holding my hand

And how she loves me for the fuck up that i truly am
I've got this new girlfriend
And honestly i probly shouldnt even call her man
And i cant understand why it is taking so much time
to see this small town girl is the catch of a life time
She don't even know just who i am
no
She don't even know just where ive been
no
And every broken promise that i ever made
I promise you
From the deepest darkest corrner of my heart just know
my love is true
She don't even know
I've got this new girlfriend
I never thought id fall in love again but how she loves me for the broken heart i truly am I've got this new girlfriend
