Blindsided

Ann Rabson

It seems like I found someone
Who was always on my side
I really thought that you'd be true
And so I let my guard down
And I slowly closed my eyes
Then you hit me from out of the blue
I must have been out of my mind
How could I have been so blind?

Oh, I was blindsided
I thought that you were A-OK
I was blindsided
I never should have looked away
Ashes to ashes and dust to dust
I thought I found somebody I could trust
I must have been out of my mind
How could I have been so blind?

Oh, I was blindsided
You acted like you really cared
I was blindsided
I thought we had a love we shared
A, B, C, X, X, Y, Z
You sure pulled an old double cross on me
How could I have been so blind?
I must have been out of my mind

[Instrumental Interlude]

Oh, I was blindsided
I dreamed you claimed a piece of my heart
I was blindsided
It must have been some other part
Lavender green, Lavender blue
I never should have taken my eyes off you
How could I have been so blind?
I must have been out of my mind

Well, I was blindsided
I heard you sayin' "I love you"

Blindsided

I never though you'd prove untrue
Well, now wrong is wrong and right is right
I must have been blinded by the candlelight
How could I have been so blind?
I must have been out of my mind

How could I have been so blind?
I must have been out of my mind.

Lyrics Submitted by Earl Harper

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/