

Healer (feat. GoldLink)

Moxie Raia

[Verse 1: Moxie Raia]

Hey there Mr. Dope dealer

Thank you for smoking me out

And showin up like a healer

My mind's been running in recent

Need you to comfort me now

I miss the way you that you turn me out

What you do to me

As you figure me out

You're a realer G

Nobody's home

And I'm you're patient

You're shining waiting[Chorus]

I want to feel so close to you

Until we pass out

We'll reach another altitude

Yeah we're so high now x2[Verse 2: Goldlink]

I met you in Miami

And I knew you was it

I'm the plug

So you know a nigga cheap with the shit

A Bob Marley sweater

That was passed to you and the fit

You so perfectly you thought I was forgetful and shit

Fantasies about you and me in the coupe

Riding with the work up in the trunk

And ride with the tool

Liter on my hip

A nina shoot the prettiest book

Lit the penetrating nigga that who be looking at you

Niggas got me

Got me fucked up again

I'm your healer, dealer

And your bestfriend and your man

We don't need to tell em bout us

We don't need to pretend

See I ain't even cared to ask you if you had a boyfriend

Cause when I see whats mine

I take whats mine

I seen you once
I fuck you once
You know its mine
You scream for more
I feed you drugs
I heal your soul
You look me up and down
And then in my eyes
Then you're synced to me[Chorus]
I want to feel so close to you
Until we pass out
We'll reach another altitude
Yeah we're so high now x2
