Full Circle

Half Moon Run

Cap off kneeling at the back of the church,
Feeling water on your brow, if it's healing it hurts
At first a sharpish pain that returns as a thought
That the needle in your skin will bring you closer to godAnd I watch as your head turns full circleOur hope was with a coffee and a medical text
It's too easy knowin' nothing blowing off the rest
And the riddles in the pages leave at too much to guess
And the worry cracks a fracture from your hip to your chestAs I watch as your head turns full circleWe got lost in the travels in the spiritual book
Missed the beaches from nirvana and the way that they look
And the crooks they're on the island they're killin' to keep runnin'
They're running severance on the plastic and it seems to be workingIs that the best that I can do?
As I watch as your head turns full circleYou appear even tempered though your looks will deceive
And the sparks are always flying cause you drink for relief
With the heart of a child and the wit of a fool
It's a wonder why I don't try to build a wall around youWhen I watch as your head turns full circle
And I watch as your head turns full circle
Yeah I watch as your head turns full circle
