

Undivided

HANNAH KERR

More than just a melody I offer all I have all I have Nothing less than everything into the crate I am the crate I am You're the Lord of the heavens the earth the sky the sea creator and sustainer of every breath in me I wont stand here
before you
and lift my hands in vain when I worship
my heart wont sing any other name you're my focus my anchor the anthem of my soul
I'm undivided
I'm undivided Words alone are not enough to honor who you are who you are may it be a song that overflows and rises from this heart this grateful heart You're my savior and redeemer I'll bow before your throne and offer up these praises to you and you alone
I wont stand here
before you
and lift my hands in vain
when I worship
my heart wont sing any other name
you're my focus my anchor the anthem of my soul
I'm undivided
I'm undivided The anthem of my soul
I'm undivided
I sing for you and you alone
