

You're the Sweetest Thing

Jim Reeves

In all this big wide happy world
You're the sweetest thing
It's you who makes the flowers bloom
The happy robins sing. I'm so happy when you're near me
So blue when you're away
When I see your sunny smile
My night time turns to day. Glad to know you'll be around
No matter come what may
To share my laughter and my love
And drive the blues away. --- Instrumental ---
In all this world I've never seen
A sweeter thing than you
There's a bit of God's own heaven
In every thing you do Darling, how I'd miss you
If God took you away
But if he should I know that
You'd still be in my heart to stay You've turned the gray skies into blue
Taught this happy heart to sing
I love you very, very much
For you're the sweetest thing. --- Instrumental --- Darling, how I'd miss you
If God took you away
But if he should I know that
You'd still be in my heart to stay
You've turned the gray skies into blue
Taught this happy heart to sing
I love you very, very much
For you're the sweetest thing.
