

I Turn Everything Over

Switchfoot

Monday found me on my knees again
Breathing you in to blur the lines
That mark where I begin
And where you end
No use in trying to pretend
And make me again
'Cause rumor has it I'm not who I've been
Come define me What can we do
If the rumors are true? I turn everything over
I turn myself in
I turn everything over
I turn myself in
There's nothing left for me to defend
I turn everything over
I turn myself in, yeah The evidence convicts the hollow men
After looking inside
To my dismay I find I'm just one of them
Yeah yeah, 'cause I'm an already but not yet
Resurrected fallen man
Come break this limbo
And I know you know just who I've been
Come define me What can we do
If the rumors are true? I turn everything over
I turn myself in
I turn everything over
I turn myself in
I turn everything over
I turn myself in, yeah Rumor has it you love me
Rumor has it the world spins upside down
Rumor has my only hope is you
And the rumors are true
I turn everything over, yeah What can we do
If the rumors are true? I turn everything over
I turn myself in
I turn everything over
I turn myself in
I turn everything over

I turn myself in I turn everything over

I turn myself in

I turn everything over

I turn myself in

I turn everything over

I turn myself in
