

More Than A Lover

Bonnie Tyler

Blown in the breeze, falling like leaves
Give me a chance to recover
Deep in you eyes half of me lies
Let me be more than a lover
Let me be more than a lover Oh, let it be known you're my heart, you're my home
You're the world that I wanna discover
All I can give is the way that I live
And I wanna be more than a lover
Oh, let me be more than a lover Lovers are like stars in the night
Never quite touching each other
Deep in your eyes half of me lies
Let me be more than a lover
Let me be more than a lover Oh, let it be known you're my heart, you're my home
You're the world that I wanna discover
All I can give is the way that I live
And I wanna be more than a lover
Oh, let me be more than a lover Oh, let it be known you're my heart, you're my home
You're the world that I wanna discover
All I can give is the way that I live
And I wanna be more than a lover
Oh, let me be more than a lover Let me be more than a lover
