

Miles

Angie Miller

I found myself counting dreams to sleep again I fear and hope that my heart will be exposed
Oh I'm so close it feels so far
It's such a part, such a part, such a part of who we are I'm miles from what's in front of me
(I'm miles from what's in front of me)
Feels like I'm chasing the road beneath my feet
(I'm miles away) Once in love, right now I feel I've lost it all
To someone else's painted world
It's such a part, such a part, such a part of who we are I'm miles from what's in front of me
(I'm miles from what's in front of me)
Feels like I'm chasing the road beneath my feet
(I'm miles away) From where I stand it's so out of my reach
I'm miles from what's in front of me...
But I'm running for it
Until I can't catch my breath
Oh but I'm running for it
Until I can't catch my breath
But I'm running for it
I'm running for it I'm miles from what's in front of me
(I'm miles from what's in front of me)
Feels like I'm chasing the road beneath my feet
(I'm miles away) I'm miles from what's in front of me
(I'm miles from what's in front of me)
Feels like I'm chasing the road beneath my feet
(I'm miles away) Miles from what's in front of me
