

Hearts, Repeating

Nic Hessler

With a kiss, ton of bliss
And I'm gone
And every feeling I've ever had
Is gone I reminisce, your glowing face
I can see
I just wish away
Another cold memory
Oh, let go to of my head
Always show instead
You're saying I'm not worthy
Of everything
That you have ever so mean
See you in my dreams
You won't get this feeling
Feel left behind
Should turn it our own
Oh, let go to of my head
Always show instead You're saying I'm not worthy
Of everything
That you have ever so mean
My love
With open arms just still come easy
So hard
You're trying to please me, oho
See you in my dreams
You won't get this feeling
Should turn it our own It just keeps on repeating
It just keeps on repeating
It just keeps on repeating
I just keep on repeating
