

Secondhand Heart

Will Hoge

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Here it comes another lonely night, I'm waking up in my clothes
I know this place is poison but I'm coming back for a lethal dose
I got fist full of chances and a washed up angel to fill me up with bad advice
Sex and God and lust and I just hope that maybe I can get this right 'Cause I want and I need
Do you really want to see me bleed?
'Cause I can't get nothin' from your secondhand heart
I get nothing from your secondhand heart Filling pages with the same old secrets I still want just you
Blackbird on a lonely wire, do you ever think about me too
I want something that I can hold onto, I don't care if it's wrong or right
But sex and God and lust and I just hope that maybe I can get this right 'Cause I want and I need
Do you really want to see me bleed?
'Cause I can't get nothin' from your secondhand heart
I get nothing from your secondhand heart I end up every time just playing your twisted games
I light myself on fire and you just watch as I go up in flames Sex and God and lust and I just hope that maybe I can get this right 'Cause I want and I need
Do you really want to see me bleed?
'Cause I can't get nothin' from your secondhand I want and I need
Do you really want to see me bleed?
'Cause I can't get nothin' from your secondhand heart
I get nothing from your secondhand heart
I get nothing from your secondhand heart
I get nothing from your secondhand heart
And I get nothing from your secondhand heart
