Hurt

Groundbreaking

I show you my parasites,
They eat me up from inside,
I've been like this for so long,
I can't remember the last time I was strong.

And all my cuts and bruises fade,
When all that's left of me,
The show that's in the mirror,
Is trying not to look back at me,
And I hear all the sirens,
Self destruction counting in three...

All the time is ticking down,
I am close to zero now,
Won't stop til' I hear the Sound of angelic silencing.
All the palms are falling down,
Fireworks are all around,
Sink so far but I can't drown,
Let me share a piece of...

And I am bringing the pain!

I like when I'm thrown away,
It feels good when I'm alone,
Cause I could carry it away,
To places I've never known.

I try to scream but I can't breathe
As they all tape my sound,
My past mistakes are all too mean,
It's I can't find a way out.
I'm stuck inside this cage,
I'm finding all my doubts,
But I can't break away,
They keep on pulling me down!

And I am bringing the pain!

I don't have any fight.

I'm writing stupid songs.
I don't know what is right,
When all of me is gone.

I will never be your toy, leave me here with all my noise,
I will never be your toy, leave me here with all my noise,
I will never be your toy, leave me here with all my noise,
I will never be your toy, leave me here with all my noise!

Anything, they're anywhere or anything,
Anyhow, they're any place, anywhere,
Anywhere, then anything, anyone,
Everyone, and anything everywhere.

Then I will breathe in pain!

Anything, they're anywhere or anything,
Anyhow, they're any place, anywhere,
Anywhere, then anything, anyone,
Everyone, and anything everywhere.
