Love Has Found a Way

Spirit

Waves are crashing on the sea
Lennon's flashing on how would she be
Some are reaching for the gun
Some are searching for all the sunLove has found another way
(Love has found another way)
I knew it would make it some how
(Oh Yeah)
We will find a better way for making love
And love, love has found a way
(And love)
And loveChildren reaching for a hand
Soldiers killing at every command
Though I've seen this with silent tears
Some will give this with violent fearsLove has found another way
(Love has found another way)
I knew it would make it some how
(Oh Yeah)
We will find a better way for making love
And love, love has found a way
(Love)
And love, love, love has found a
