

The Night Creeper

Uncle Acid and the Deadbeats

Shadow in blue and indigo dreams, hoping to take you away
Come close to see and feel the night slip into day
Blood on her lips and white powdered nose
Scraping the glass on the line
Head split inside like mirrors on razor blade liesParanoid city at night
Shadows from under street light
People in fear day by day
NIGHT CREEPER crawling away
Niners eyes dart round in the room, hoping to find all he should
Cigarette smell and the damp of this rain on the wood Jigsaw of brains and body parts too, scattered like seeds on the floor
Flashbulbs go off to the newspapers hungry for more
Lock up your windows and bolt up your doors
Heed all the warnings he's coming for more Innocent eyes are not what they seem Strangers are dangerous, they'll hide all your screams
Read all the papers and spread all the news
Night Creepers crawling and COMING FOR YOU
They'll never find him and we'll never know
Who'll be next to go...
