Just Like Me

New Politics

You say you want to save the world
(Just Like Me)
You want to find the perfect girl
(Just Like Me)
You want to drive a fancy car
(Just Like Me)
You want to be a rock star
Just Like MeSo you want to be different?
But you're just like me
Just like me
Just like me
Just like me me me me!You say you're just like meYou say you want a lot of money
(Just Like Me)
You pretend that life is funny
(Just Like Me)
You want to write a super hit?
(Just Like Me)
You're such a fucking hypocriteSo you want to be different?
Ha but that's just like...
Just like me
Just like me
Just like me
Just like me me me!You think you're just like me
You're nothing like me
