

Judgement Day

Van Halen

It's my life, get off my ass, get outta my face
Man, I don't see no problem
Kickin' back, ain't kickin' you, no no
Anyway, if I make 'em, I'll solve 'em
Ohh, that's right, yeah
Makin' plan's a waste, ain't no future here
Got no faith and no religion You tell me why should I
Care or even, why try?
I'm gonna slide right on by, oh
Never bad enough to crucify Huh, put it out until Judgement Day
I'll bear the cross on Judgement Day I done most anything, keep 'em doin' anything
'Cause sometimes I just wanna do nothin'
Nothin' lost, so tell me how can I lose?
When I'm startin' off with nothin', oh Tell me why should I
Care or even, wanna try?
I'm gonna slide, slide on by, oh
Never bad enough to crucify Huh, put it off until Judgement Day
I'll bear that cross on Judgement Day, ow Everything's all right? Yeah
Looks all right, feels all right, must be all right, wow Put it off until Judgement Day
I'll bear that cross on Judgement Day
Put it off, put it off until Judgement Day
I'll bear the cross on Judgement Day Oh, whoa yeah, on Judgement Day
Oh, whoa yeah, on Judgement Day
Wow!
