

Neverending world

Markku Mattila

All I hear, all I see
Oh, I leave this world alone
Your'e doing Your things, I'm doing mine
I understand more than I want
At this moment it causes me pain This is a neverending world
Filled with sweet dreams and love
See the rainbow in the sky
Where will the treasure lie? We live our lives just like we want
Some are working hard, some just give up
In the end we will all be the same
Like the rainbow that's always been there
The story about the rainbow is just the life we live This is a neverending world
Filled with sweet dreams and love
See the rainbow in the sky
Where will the treasure lie?
